Twenty-fifth Sunday after Pentecost

The Catechism of the Crisis in the Church by Fr. Matthias Gaudron

IV: THE SECOND VATICAN COUNCIL

28) How did the liberals take over the Council? (contd.)

- Do we find other aspects of Rahner's sentiments in his correspondence during the Council?

The publication in 1994 of the correspondence exchanged between Fr. Karl Rahner and the Austrian poetess Luise Rinser (1911-2002) opened wide a scandal: at the very time he was holding sway at the Council, Karl Rahner was exchanging love letters with this woman, in his passion writing to her as many as three times a day (276 letters during the year 1964 alone).

- Did other bad theologians influence Vatican II?

One can name, among others, Fr. Congar and Fr. Henri de Lubac, previously introduced, Fr. Edward Schillebeeckx, Fr. John Courtney Murray, etc.

- What influence did Fr. Congar have at Vatican II?

Archbishop Lefebvre related this incident:
At the beginning of Vatican II, I would go to the meetings [of the French bishops] at St-Louis-des-Français. But I was amazed to see how things went. The bishops literally behaved themselves like little boys before the Congars and the other experts who came. Fr. Congar would go up to the head table and without the least reticence would say: "Your Excellency So-and-so, you will make this intervention on this subject. Don't worry, we will prepare the text for you, and you will only need to read it." I couldn't believe my eyes or my ears! And I stopped going to these meetings....

- Are there any other testimonies about Fr. Congar's influence?

Msgr. Desmazières, auxiliary bishop of Bordeaux, related:
In the afternoon, the workshops continue. I go to mine, directed by Fr. Congar, on Scripture and Tradition. There are about a dozen of us. We have to prepare the interventions to be made the next day. I am asked to take the second. I do not refuse, provided that Fr. Congar prepare the text for me. That is agreed. He will pass it to me tomorrow in the bus. I get my first look at the text in the bus; I am decided to change nothing. Getting out at St. Peter's, I go to register: I am the twenty-first....
