Nuestra Señora del Buen Suceso

To be freed from the slavery of these heresies, those whom the merciful love of my Most Holy Son will destine for this restoration will need great strength of will, constancy, valor and much confidence in God. To put to test this Faith and confidence of the just, there will come moments in which everything will seem lost and paralyzed, and then will come the happy beginning of the complete restoration.

...Masonry, having seized all social classes, will have so much subtlety to introduce itself into domestic households that, ruining childhood, the devil will glory in preying the exquisite delicacy of the hearts of the children.

In those ill-fated times, childlike innocence will barely be found. In this way, vocations to the priesthood will be lost, which will be a true calamity.

Religious communities will remain to sustain the Church and to work with valiant and selfless determination in the salvation of souls. It is because at this time the regular observance will shine in the communities; there will be holy ministers of the altar, hidden and beautiful souls in whom my Most Holy Son and I will take delight, with the exquisite flowers and fruits of heroic sanctity. Against these ministers, impiety will wage a cruel war and fill them with vituperations, calumnies, and vexations to impede the fulfillment of their ministry; but they, like most firm columns, will remain steadfast, confronting everything with the spirit of humility and sacrifice, with which they will be clothed, in virtue of the infinite merits of my Most Holy Son who loves them like the most delicate fibers of His Most Holy and Tender Heart.

In those times, in the secular clergy there will be much to desire because the priests will neglect their sacred duty. Losing the divine compass, they will stray from the path charted by God in the priestly ministry...the Church will suffer the dark night of the lack of a Prelate and father who watches over with paternal love, with gentleness, strength, sound judgment, and prudence, many of them will lose their spirit, placing their souls in great danger.

Pray insistently, clamor without tiring and weep with bitter tears in the secrecy of your heart, asking our Celestial Father that for the love of the Eucharistic Heart of my Most Holy Son, for this Precious Blood poured out with so much generosity, and for the profound bitterness and sorrows of His bitter passion and death, that he be compassionate to his ministers and put an end as soon as possible to these so ill-fated times, sending to this Church the Prelate who must restore the spirit of Her priests.

Introduced by these faithless people are all the vices; because of them are all types of chastisements...losing a considerable number of souls so dear to Jesus and me because of apostasy.

To dissipate these black clouds which prevent the possession of the clear day of liberty of the Church, there will be a formidable and frightful war in which blood of their own and strangers, of secular and regular priests, and also of religious will flow. This night will be most horrible because to mankind, evil will seem to be triumphant.

Then is the coming of my hour, when I, in an amazing way, will dethrone the proud Satan, crushing him under my feet and chaining him in the infernal abyss, finally freeing the Church from and country from his cruel tyranny.

.... Since I need courageous souls in all times to save My Church and the prevaricating world, that is to say, souls for whom I suffered so much these unheard of sorrows —and since so many are lost, I desire that that you, as a good spouse, assist me.

God alone knows if this Prelate is Msgr Lefebvre or another; if these religious communities are the works of Tradition or not. No matter the case, the present crisis calls us to be heroic souls and soldiers of Christ and the Blessed Virgin.

Nuestra Señora del Buen Suceso

MARIANA DE JÉSUS TORRES Y BERICHOA was born in 1563 of pious parents. When 13 years old, she entered the Royal Convent of the Immaculate Conception in Quito, Ecuador. In 1577, Mariana entered the novitiate and in 1579 she professed her vows.

At a young age, Mariana was privileged to receive special favors from God. She received the first of many locutions at the age of seven. At her First Communion she went into ecstasy. By nine years old, she began what is called prayer of quiet—a type of mystical contemplation in which the soul experiences an intimate awareness of God's presence.

In 1594, the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to Mother Mariana under the title of Our Lady of Buen

Suceso (the Joyous Event) of the Purification. She would appear and convey personal messages through Mother Mariana's life, all approved by the Church.

The words given cover many subjects, especially penance, but include a prophecy about modern times :

"At the end of the 19th century until a little after the half of the 20th century...passions will overflow and there will be a total corruption of customs because of the almost total reign of Satan in the masonic sects which principally will strive to corrupt children to maintain the general corruption! Woe to the children of this time! They will receive the sacrament of Baptism with difficulty; Confirmation will be the same; The sacrament of Penance only when they remain in Catholic schools, in

Monday Masses

Beginning this Monday, 27 Jan, there will be Mass at 6:15 A.M. Occasionally this Mass may need to be cancelled due to priests' travel, but if so, it will be announced on Sunday.

Candlemas

Sunday, 2 Feb, is the Feast of the Purification of the Blessed Virgin and Presentation of Our Lord. In honour of the "Light to the Gentiles" which the devil will use all efforts to destroy.

"Communion will be the same, but, oh, how I regret to manifest to you that there will be many and great sacrifices, public and also secret, profaning the Holy Eucharist! How often during this period they, the enemies of Jesus Christ instigated by the devil, will rob the Consecrated Hosts in the cities, only to profane the Eucharistic species! My Most Holy Son will be seen fallen on the floor and trampled by filthy feet.

"...the Sacrament of Extreme Unction will be little respected. Many people will die not receiving it, because of the neglect of families, because of misconceived affection towards the sick, and also because of some who oppose the Catholic Church, instigated by the accursed devil, depriving the souls of many innumerable graces, consolations, and strength to make the big leap from time to eternity. Some will also die without receiving it by the just and secret punishments of God.

"The sacrament of Matrimony which represents the union of Christ with the Church will be attacked and profaned in the full extent of the word. The rule of Masonry will establish its laws to extinguish it, facilitating all to live immorally and propagating the procreation of illegitimate children; without the blessing of the Church, the Christian spirit will rapidly decline, extinguishing the precious light of the faith until it reaches an almost total and general corruption of customs. This, together with secular education, will be the reason for dwindling of priestly and religious vocations.

"The sacrament of Holy Orders will be mocked, oppressed, and despised because masonic sects oppress and violate the Church of God, and God Himself in his priests. Then the devil will endeavor to persecute the ministers of Our Lord in all ways and will labour with cruel and subtle astuteness to deviate them from the spirit of their sublime vocation, making them degener-candles are solemnly blessed and carried in procession. Thus it receives the name in English: "Candlemas Day". This blessing and procession will precede the Sunday Mass at 9 A.M. If you wish beeswax candles to be blessed, place them on the table near the altar rail. As the blessing specifically names candles "made from the work of bees," those not at least part beeswax ought not be placed on the table.

ate into debauchery. Scandalizing the Christian people many times, bad priests will draw upon all priests the hatred of bad Christians and of the enemies of the Roman, Catholic and Apostolic Church.

"With this apparent triumph of Satan, they will draw immense sufferings on the good pastors of the Church, and on the great majority of good priests...

"... in these ill-fated times, there will be unrestrained lust which will captivate countless frivolous souls who will be lost for being the snare of sin for the others. Innocence will almost no longer be found in children, nor any sense of shame in women.

"In this supreme necessity of the Church, he, who at the time should have spoken, will be silent."

Twenty-four years later, on the Feast of the Purification, Mother Mariana was praying in the upper choir in the middle of the night, as was her custom. She saw the sanctuary lamp go out leaving the main altar completely dark. Wanting to rekindle the lamp, she was unable to move when Our Lady appeared and lit the Tabernacle lamp. The Blessed Virgin then spoke to Mother Mariana explaining the prophetic reasons for the lamp having gone out:

"...at the end of the 19th century and throughout a large part of the 20th century, various heresies will spread... the precious light of the faith will be extinguished in the souls by the almost total corruption of customs; in this time there will be great physical and moral calamities, public and private. The small number of souls, in whom will be preserved hidden the treasure of the Faith and of the virtues, will suffer a cruel and unspeakable as well as prolonged martyrdom. Many of them will descend to the grave from the violence of the suffering and will be counted as martyrs who sacrificed themselves for the Church and for the country.
