Fr James Chipperfield will be visiting Jolimont from

Friday, 14th – Monday, 17th March. He will give a conference on Friday evening in place of Catechism and will give his first blessing after each Mass on Sunday, for which there is a Plenary Indulgence. Father will sing the 10.30am Mass and preach at the other Masses on Sunday.

Fr James Chipperfield was ordained a priest at the Seminary of La Reja, Argentina, on 21st December 2024. His early life was spent in Adelaide, South Australia before his family moved to Brisbane, Queensland. He completed his schooling at St Philomena's school in 2016 and entered Holy Cross Seminary in 2017. He spent a year in the Priory of Tynong where he helped at St Thomas Aquinas College.

Fr Chipperfield transferred to the Seminary in Argentina in 2022 (learned Spanish) and completed his formation and priestly studies there.

He will soon be beginning his priestly ministry in Florida, USA.
