ASK AND YOU SHALL RECEIVE.

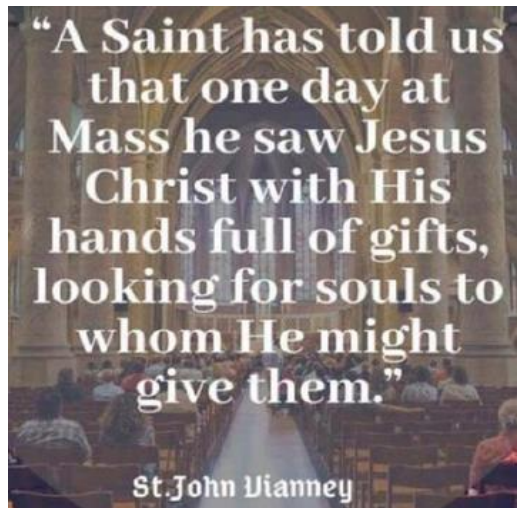

ST. ALPHONUS LIGUORI

When you have to make a decision or give some advice on matters of importance, first of all recommend yourself to God, and then set to work or give your answer. Repeat as often as you can during the day the invocation: "O Lord, make haste to help me." Such was the prayer of St. Rose of Lima: "Help me o Lord; do not leave me in my own hands." And therefore often look at the crucifix and at the picture of the Blessed Virgin which you might have in your room, and often invoke the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary, but particularly when you are tempted.

God because he is infinite goodness, has a great desire to grant His graces to us. The Venerable Alvarez one day saw our Saviour with His hands full of graces, going about seeking to whom He might dispense them. He wishes, however, that we ask Him for them. "Ask and you shall receive." Otherwise He withdraws His hand. But he willingly opens it to those who pray to Him. And who has ever called upon God, says Sirach, and gone away unanswered? "Who has called upon Him, and He despised him? David has written that the Lord is not only merciful, but exceedingly merciful, to those who pray to Him: and plenteous in mercy to those who call upon him."

Oh how good and bountiful is the Lord to those who seek Him with love! "The Lord is good to them that hope in Him, to the soul that seeketh Him." If He lets even those who do not seek Him find Him-how much more readily will He be found by one who seeks Him, and who seeks Him just to serve Him and to love Him? Finally, St. Teresa of Avila says:

"Just souls upon earth must unite and conform themselves in love to that which the souls of the Blessed do in Heaven." Just as the Saints in Heaven are concerned with God alone and have no other thought and pleasure than that of His glory and of His love, so must you also. On this earth God should be your only happiness, the only object of your affections, the only purpose of all your actions and desires-so that you may arrive at the eternal kingdom where your love will be entirely perfect and full, and where your desires will be completely fulfilled and satisfied. Live Jesus our love and Mary our hope.
