JESUS-CHRIST SHOWED HIMSELF ALIVE TO THE APOSTLES AFTER HIS PASSION, BY MANY PROOFS, FOR FORTY DAYS APPEARING TO THEM, AND SPEAKING OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD

Although Christ our Lord, for the space of forty days, was always with His disciples invisibly, yet sometimes for their greater consolation He showed Himself to them alive, risen again, and glorious, proving to them by sundry very effectual arguments, that He was the same that had been dead; some times suffering them to touch His wounds, other times eating with them, other times working miracles, such as was to enter in to them, the gates being shut, that they should take a multitude of great fishes at an instant upon His word, and finally alleging other reasons and testimonies out of the divine Scriptures, which spoke of His resurrection ; and after this manner did He encourage and comfort them, as often as He appeared to them.

The same thing Christ our Lord performs towards the souls of His elect, with whom He remained in the manner aforesaid, invisibly all the time of their life, figured by these forty days, to whom He sometimes appears, that is, visits them interiorly, and encourages and comforts them, giving them some signs and testimonies of His presence, with most especial inspirations and affections of love, with sweetness and sensible devotion, which is the refection of the spirit, with very wonderful changes which He works within their hearts, and with the illustration and understanding of the verities of holy Scripture which He imparts to them. With these arguments He “shows Himself alive” to those who know that He who is within them is the living God, and who, as He lives, works in them those works of life. Also, when they communicate, He shows Himself in the same manner alive unto them, giving them assured signs that they have received the bread of life which descended from heaven ; for He communicates unto them some light, or love, or desires, and purposes of a new life, sorrow for sins, and inflamed affections of devotion ; whereby they understand that He whom they have received, is not bread alone, is not a dead thing, but the living God.
