DEVOTION TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

The Golden Key To Graces

Devotion to the Holy Spirit is the GOLDEN KEY, wherewith the soul gains free access to His infinitely rich treasure chamber. From this treasury, the Holy Spirit dispenses graces upon graces with boundless liberality and delight, for he is Eternal Love, and to give affords Him more pleasure than man experiences in receiving. In His infinite love he ardently desires to make souls happy, more so than a mother desires to gladden her child. Souls who honour the Holy Spirit in a particular manner are assured of receiving special graces.

The Holy Mother of God and the Apostles were the first to practise special devotion to the Holy Spirit. Saint Paul speaks of the Holy Spirit more than a hundred times in his Epistles. All the holy Fathers of the church have followed in the footsteps of the Apostles. All have glorified the Holy Spirit, and some have written whole volumes in His praise. To St. Ambrose alone are ascribed four books on the Holy Spirit.

Once when the glorious Pontiff, Pope St. Pius V, was considering these words of the Royal Psalmist: "Send forth thy Spirit and they shall be created, and thou shalt renew the face of the earth.," he felt convinced that these words, which were fulfilled on the first Pentecost, would continue to be realised if Christians would invoke the Holy Spirit with contrite hearts.

Pope Leo X<sup>111</sup>, in his encyclical of May 9th 1897, writes: "We earnestly desire that PIETY may increase and be inflamed toward the Holy Spirit, to whom especially all of us owe the grace of following the path of truth and virtue."

"Devotion to the Holy Spirit," says Cardinal Manning, seeks to awaken in us a consciousness of the presence and indwelling of The Holy Spirit, not only in the Church as a whole, but in each one of us.

The Holy Spirit is not honoured at all by some Catholics, and far too little by most. It is regrettable that so few prayer books contain devotions to The Holy Spirit, for it is by the incessant administration of graces that He operates the Supernatural life of the faithful. Let it be remembered that all the light, inspirations, Divine calls; all the good acts which we have performed during our life; all our acts of contrition, of confidence in the Divine Mercy, of love, of resignation, have been gifts of the Holy Spirit. The hidden manner in which the Holy Spirit operates obscures His graces from our superficial sight, but let us never forget that we are His temples.
