Morning Offering
By St Therese of Lisieux
(1873 – 1897)

O my God!
I offer Thee
all my actions of this day
for the intentions
and for the glory
of the Sacred Heart of Jesus.
I desire to sanctify
every beat of my heart,
my every thought,
my simplest works,
by uniting them
to Its infinite merits and I wish to make reparation
for my sins,
by casting them
into the furnace
of Its Merciful Love.
O my God!
I ask Thee for myself
and for those
whom I hold dear,
the grace to fulfil perfectly Thy Holy Will,
to accept for love of Thee,
the joys and sorrows
of this passing life,
so that we may one day
be united together
in Heaven for all Eternity.
Amen

The forms of bread and wine are a memory of Our Lord's Passion

Our Lord left Himself under the forms of bread and wine to be a memory of His Passion, in order to signify, that like as Christ in this Sacrament joins Himself with bread, made of many grains of wheat, ground and bruised, and with wine made of the grains of grapes, pressed and strained, even so in His Passion was His most sacred body tormented and bruised with whips, thorns, and nails, and was also ground with most grievous ignominies, and pressed even to the drawing forth of all His blood, and He was left wholly exhausted as the grape in the wine-press. For which cause, by the presence of these forms of bread and wine, He wills that we remember the pains and ignominies which they represent; and as we eat the bread and drink the wine, so that we eat, drink, and incorporate within us the intolerable pains of His death and Passion. And especially we ought to bruise and grind our heart with contrition for our sins, and to chastise our flesh with penances, and to take pleasure to be despised in imitation of Him.

But this charity of our benign Lord passed yet further, because in Baptism he that is baptised represents, as St. Paul says, the death and burial of Jesus Christ, when he is drowned under the waters, as Christ was drowned under the waves of His tribulations and afflictions, and placed in His sepulchre under a great stone. But in this Sacrament Christ Himself represents His death and burial when He is eaten, and as it were torn with the teeth, and when He is transported into the stomach He is a memory of Himself torn with the teeth of His persecutors, delivered to earth and placed in a sepulchre. And at all those things our Lord Himself assists, that the same may be done with reverence and spirit, communicating the fruits of His Passion and death to him that receives Him.

O my soul, remember when Thou dost communicate, that thou art made the sepulchre of Jesus Christ, receiving Him within thee truly alive in Himself, but dead in representation. See that thy "sepulchre" be glorious now and hewed out in a rock ; that thou mayest understand that thou thyself oughtest to be glorious by virtues, new by renovation of spirit, and grounded in the imitation of that living rock, which is Jesus Christ. O most sweet Christ, sanctify, I beseech Thee, this sepulchre, into which Thou enterest at this present, that so long as Thou shalt remain in it, it may be made Thy worthy dwelling ; and as in Thine own sepulchre, there was never any placed but Thyself, so in this there enter not for time to come anything that may displease Thee, nor any creature which may profane it, preserving it always new and pure for Thy glory ever lastingly. Amen
