HOLY FACE DEVOTION

Sister Marie of St Peter felt herself transported in spirit to the road to Calvary, “there,” she says, “our Lord vividly portrayed to me the pious act of Veronica, who with her veil wiped his most Holy Face, covered with spittle, dust, sweat, and blood.

This Divine Savior made me understand that the impious at present, by their blasphemies, renewed the outrages formerly inflicted on his Holy Face. All the blasphemies hurled against the Divinity, whom they cannot reach, fall back, like the spittle of the Jews, upon the Face of our Lord, who has offered himself a victim for sinners.

Then he told me I must imitate the zeal of the pious Veronica, who so courageously braved the crowd of his enemies to reach him, and he gave her to me as a protectress and model. By promoting the Reparation for blasphemy we render him the same service as did this heroic Jewish woman, and he looks upon those who thus act with the same complacency as when he gazed upon her on his way to Calvary.”

“By virtue of this Adorable Face presented to the Eternal Father we can appease his just wrath and obtain the conversion of the impious and blasphemers.”

“The Blessed Savior said to me: ‘I seek Veronicas to wipe and honor my Divine Face, which has few adorers.’ And he made me understand anew that all who would devote themselves to this Work of the Reparation would thereby perform the office of the pious Veronica.”

‘By my Holy Face you will perform wonders.’
