STRIVING FOR DEVOTION

Son, the grace of devotion is not just a holy feeling, nor is it a religious mood. It is an intelligent attachment of your will to Me and to whatever I command or desire of you.

This is a very great grace. I will grant it to you if you will make a sincere effort to turn your back on whatever hinders your spiritual progress. You must empty your heart of all useless interests in order to make room for me.

Often it is such a small matter that prevents one from obtaining this grace. Misguided self-interest cuts people off from this glorious gift.

I desire you to have this grace. It will make you loyal to me in all things. If you do not have it yet, it is because you have not yet prepared your soul for it. Pray for it and labour for it. Gain control of your feelings and unreasoning desires by acts of self-denial and self-sacrifice. Above all, begin a determined battle against the outstanding faults in your daily life.

With this grace of true devotion, you will find many things easy which now seem difficult and impossible. You will never again lose sight of my power, wisdom and love and you will consider it a privilege to follow my will.

Think

If I make a firm and determined effort to abandon my foolish love for unnecessary distractions, God will give me the gift of devotion. From then on I will have a steady loyalty to Christ. I will no longer depend on feelings or moods, but will follow God's will intelligently and faithfully even when I do not feel like doing so.

Pray

My loving and loyal Saviour, you lived an earthly life of devotion to Your Father's will. By self-giving action You made reparation for my many acts of disobedience to His holy commandments. By self-giving action, You also proved Your love for me. You gave me an example of true devotion. Grant me the grace of true and solid devotion to You, so that I may prove my love for You by self-giving. No matter how I may feel. Let me do only what is pleasing to You. I desire not only to avoid all sin but also to do many little extra things for your sake. Make my devotion like yours - a constant self-offering which will prove my love beyond all doubt. Amen.

Imitation of Christ
